AN ORDINANCE

Section 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Borough Council of the Borough of North York, Pennsylvania, and it is hereby enacted and ordained by the authority of the same that from and after the passage of this Act, it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation owning or having a present interest in any real estate within the Borough of North York, Pennsylvania, to permit weeds and similar vegetation, not edible nor planted for any ornamental reason, to grow or remain on the premises owned by them within the confines of the Borough of North York. All such vegetation is hereby declared to be a nuisance, and to be detrimental to the health, safety and comfort of the inhabitants of the said Borough.

Section 2. All such weeds or other vegetation permitted to grow or remain contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance shall be cut and removed by or under the direction of the Chief Burgess. The Borough Engineer or the Chairman of the Sanitary Committee of the Borough Council; or by such person or committee as shall be designated by the Council. The cost thereof, together with such penalties provided, shall be collected by lien or by an action in assumpsit or in any other manner as may be provided by law.

Section 3. Any person, firm or corporation violating this Ordinance shall be subject to a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $25 for each offense. It is further hereby declared that each refusal or neglect to comply with the terms of this Ordinance shall be considered a separate violation and shall be treated as such. In default of the payment of the fine, such persons shall be confined in such place of incarceration as the Borough shall use, for a period of not exceeding 24 hours.

Section 4. All Ordinances or parts thereof, inconsistent with this Ordinance are hereby repealed.

Enacted and ordained this sixth day of May, A. D. 1932.

ELI STARE,

KENT HAYS,
